A GRAND VIRGINIA DISCOVERY. SOME FOUR MONTHS SINCE, our excellent townsman.
NAPHTALI EZEKIEL, informed us that he had prepared a hair restorer with which he was experimenting upon his own head, whose top was entirely bald. We saw him two days since, and on the place so bald four months since, a fine crop of hair has spring up with a vigorous growth. So convinced is Mr. EZEKIEL of the efficacy of his discovery that he has named it "THE INFALLIBLE VIRGINIA HAIR RESTOREP." Mr. E. is about going into an extensive manufacture of an article which is destined to prove of anxious interest to our bald pated friends .- From Richmond Enquirer, December 12th, 1859.

Finally, the instinct of our organism, as if in an attempt to expel the noxious infusion, concentrates the whole blood of the body in the internal excretories to force them to cast it out. The blood leaves the surface, and rushes to the central organs with congestive iolence. This is the CHILL. Esq., was requested to act as Secretary. The object of the meeting having been explained by the Chairman, the following resolutions were introduced and

Resolved, That in view of the threatening aspect of the political affairs of our country, and the necessity of rousing the advocates of peace and union to proper action, we deem it expedient to hold a Mass Meeting of the friends of Breckinridge and Lane, at Lillington, on Saturday the 27th of October, instant. Resolved, That the Chairman appoint a Committee of three to invite speakers to address the public on that occasion upon the political issues now pending before the people of the United States, in connection with the present Presidential campaign.

Resolved, That a Committee of five be appointed to make suitable arrangements for the occasion. In pursuance of the 2d and 3d resolutions, the Chairman appointed the following Committees, viz: On Invitations-

Messrs. James P. Moore, Fletcher H. Bell, and James S. Hines. On Arrangements - Messrs. Evan L. Miller, Wm. J. Cornwall, Jas. Garrason, Jno. Larkins and Jno. C. McLeod. On motion the Chairman was added to each of the above Committees. On motion it was ordered that the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Wilmington Journal. On motion the meeting adjourned. WILL. D. SOMERS, Ch'm'n. JAS. P. MOORE, Sec'y.

A meeting of the Democrats of Wolf Pitt, will be held at J. S. Wilkin's Store, on Saturday, 27th inst. The Democrats of Onslow are respectfully invited to assist in raising a Pole dedicated to Breckinridge and Lane. WOLF PITT.

Read! We copy the following from the Standard of last Saturday. The authority is fully given. We ask all who still have any "hankering" for the "Little Giant." to read and ponder:

Douglas and Lincoln.—We are indebted to a gentleman of high character in Warren county, for the following correspondence, containing a statement which we deeply regret, but which our duty to our readers requires us to publish. Alfred E. Lewis, we are assured is a gentleman of unimpeachable veracity. He is a nephew of Ex-Chief Justice Lewis, of Pennsylvania. The language attributed to Judge Douglas is reported to have been used to Mr. McPherson, a Black Republican member of Congress, and by him communicated to Mr. Lew-

PHILADELPHIA, July 23, 1860.

DEAR SIR: Reflecting on the important bearing of the remark made by Judge Douglas to the Hon. Mr. McPherson, Republican member of Congress from this State, as stated to you, to wit: "that before the election should go to the House he would throw his influence for Lincoln;" and seeing in Forney's Press an intimation to the same effect. I have spoken of it to others, and wishing to be correct in my statement, you will greatly oblige me by giving the words as nearly as you can that were used by Judge Douglas. Yours truly,

PHILADELPHIA, July 23, 1860. DEAR SIR: Your favor has just been placed in my hands. The words of Judge Douglas, as nearly as I can at this moment recall them, as repeated to me by the honorable gen-tleman I have named, were as follows: "By God, sir, the election shall never go into the House-before it shall go into the House, I will throw it over to Lincoln." The words thus used were accompanied by a violent gesture, and perhaps an additional oath. I am very truly yours,
ALFRED E. LEWIS.

Comment on the foregoing, if true, is unnecessary .-We feel bound to say that Judge Douglas' whole course since the Baltimore Convention, has been in opposition to any umon of the Democracy in order to defeat Lin-coln. He has assailed Mr. Breckinridge, politically, in WE take the liberty of calling public attention to our no-tice of Co-partnership above. We shall open, on or about election of Lincoln as a great calamity; but he has utsevere terms-he has declared that he would regard the the 1st of October next, at 39 Market Street, next door to tered no word against Mr. Bell, and he has advised no Brown & Anderson's Jewelry establishment, an entirely new stock of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, which have been selected with great care expressly for this market, and which will be offered at the lowest possible rates for each and to prompt paying customers.

tered no word against Mr. Bell, and he has advised no union of the Democratic forces to defeat Lincoln. And if the above statement of Mr. McPherson to Mr. Lewis be true, he would throw the election to Lincoln, rather than see Mr. Breckinridge elected by the House of Rethan see Mr. Breckinridge elected by the House of Re-
